

The Fire Children

There once lived three children in a village and in this village was a king. He had a giant ~~big~~ castle as big as a sky scraper. The king was called Henry he was rich. He owned gold, silver even bronze. He had a pointed nose, black pieced eye's, ~~and~~ ^{and} a gold suit covered in diamonds. He owned a dungeon right at the very bottom of the castle where rats, mice and insects marked their territory. Skulls were upon the wall lit up by a candle light it was that quiet you could hear water drip from the pipes. This is how the story begins. ~~Go~~

One day there lived a king and three children called Bob, Frank and Daniel. Bob was 10 years old and lived in a small house in the village. Frank was 14 years old he lives in a small house in the village and Daniel is 11 years old and he lives just next door to the king. These 3 children allways set fire in the den but they got caught because the flame got very high and set fire to the hole den in the village.
